WELCOME FROM MICHAEL O'NEILL

Our first UEFA Nations League campaign comes to a close on Sunday as we take on Austria in front of our home crowd.

We haven't achieved the results we wanted in the few matches that we have played in the competition, but that certainly doesn't impact on the team going into this game.

We deserved a win in Dublin this week with some of the chances that were created and we will use that performance as encouragement going into what is our final home match of the year.

Throughout 2018 the support for myself and the team has been outstanding and we know that it will be the same for this match.

We will be looking to round off the year with a win to take us into the Euro 2020 qualifying campaign next year.

Thank you for your continued support.

Michael O'Neill
National Team Manager

WELCOME FROM GARY MCALLISTER

Whilst results so far in the new UEFA Nations League have been disappointing, it's been very encouraging to see some younger players being given their chance. The fantastic performances of the Under-21 team must also give us all great heart for the future.

Hopefully we can finish on a high with a home win – there have been some memorable games against Austria over the years. After this match, our attention will turn to the draw for the Euro 2020 qualifiers, which takes place in Dublin on Sunday 2nd December at midday.

No doubt many of us will be sitting ready to get in quick to book flights for the away games next year. All of the qualifiers will be part of 'double headers', with two fixtures at a time played during dates in March, June, September, October and November.

The message for this game is the same as any other, enjoy yourself and get behind the team but be mindful that many of us pass through residential areas on our way to and from the stadium. Portable toilets are now in place at various locations en route, please make use of them!

Enjoy the match.

Gary McAllister
Chairman, AONISC
