WELCOME FROM MICHAEL O'NEILL

Football can be a cruel game and there is little doubt that what occurred in additional time against the Dutch in Rotterdam was not deserved. And I was hugely proud of the team's endeavour and application.

That disappointment was followed by perhaps the best 45 minutes of football we have played in my time as Northern Ireland manager as we destroyed the Czechs in Prague, with the goal machine that is Paddy McNair helping himself to two goals.

The next four days will give us the opportunity to rectify the defeats to Germany and Netherlands and while we know we are up against it we are certainly not overawed. I am confident that once again we will give a good account of ourselves.

Of course since we last played my own circumstances have changed. I have been extremely proud and privileged both to play for and to manage my national team and no matter where I go, or no matter what I do, I will always have a place in my heart for Northern Ireland and you, the fans, who have been so kind and supportive of me personally and professionally.

To be able to give something back to the fans and the country in the form of Euro qualification in 2016 gave me immense pride and pleasure, just as repeating the feat for 2020 is my goal now.

I know we have unfinished business against the Dutch and Germans and that the boys are fully focused on achieving this. And with your support I am convinced we can do this.

Michael O'Neill
National Team Manager

WELCOME FROM GARY McALLISTER

Hello and Welcome to the latest edition of the 12th Man guide.

As our fixtures in Group C draw to a close, it will require one last almighty effort from players and fans to get the results we need from these final games against the Netherlands and Germany. The team came so very close to causing an upset in Rotterdam and if we can recreate the brilliant atmosphere that was generated at the Germany game, then there's no reason why we can't try and claim another famous scalp.

The Northern Ireland and Netherlands Fans' Teams will also meet in a friendly match on Saturday afternoon, with Harland and Wolff Welders FC hosting the game. Kick-off is 2pm and all are welcome to attend.

As with all games, I would remind everyone that many of us make our way through residential areas on our way to and from the stadium. We all want the best possible atmosphere, but please be mindful of the good reputation that we have worked hard to earn as fans over many years. The headlines must always be about the football.

Saturday night matches are always the best – let's make this one special!

The team at Sadler's Peaky Blinder Lager are passionate supporters of football and they mirror the Irish FA's vision to create the ultimate fan experiences for supporters of our men's and women's senior teams.

Something Exciting Is Brewing!

We're looking forward to working together over the coming months and years to further enhance the fan experience on match days including turbo taps, more kiosks & mobile bars and something for the GAWA to truly call their own!

To introduce our new lager, we've secured an introductory price for this weekend's match with pints and bottles priced at £4.50 across the stadium.
