

SPECTATOR BEHAVIOUR

Spectator behaviour legislation covers matches played by Premiership and Championship clubs in Northern Ireland.

OFFENCES INCLUDE:

- Throwing articles capable of causing injury
- Indecent, sectarian or discriminatory chanting
- Entering the playing area
- Possession of fireworks, flares etc.
- Possession of alcohol on prescribed vehicles en route to a regulated match

CONSEQUENCES

- Banned from matches
- Arrest
- Fines
- Imprisonment

Spectator behaviour affects both you and your club. For more information visit:

www.irishfa.com/spectatorbehaviour